Beyond Sunday Morning

"You cannot get through a single day without having an impact on the world around you. What you do makes a difference, and you have to decide what kind of a difference you want to make."

—Jane Goodall

"To leave the world better than you found it, sometimes you have to pick up other people's trash."

—Bill Nye

"We are the first generation to feel the impact of climate change and the last generation that can do something about it."

—Barack Obama

UU Inspirations

As Unitarian Universalists, we use, and are inspired by, sacred and secular understandings that help us to live into our values. We respect the histories, contexts and cultures in which they were created and are currently practiced. These sources ground us and sustain us in ordinary, difficult, and joyous times. Grateful for the religious ancestries we inherit and the diversity which enriches our faith, we are called to ever deepen and expand our wisdom.

UU Values

Love is the power that holds us together and is at the center of our shared values. We are accountable to one another for doing the work of living our shared values through the spiritual discipline of Love.

Inseparable from one another, these shared values are:

Interdependence.

Pluralism.

Justice.

Transformation.

Generosity.

Equity.
