Beyond Sunday Morning

Serenity Prayer Adapted:

In troubled times may I find the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time, accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

Taking this world as it is, not as I would have it, trusting in myself to make things right in my life. Trusting in humanity to provide a better world for our children.

By doing this may I be able to find love and joy in my friends, family and community.

Next Sunday, November 22

Faith Development at 10:00am: A Call to Faith in Turbulent Times

Session 3: A Call to Relationship in Action

This program, created to hold the energy and anxiety of this election / post election season, will run through the month of November.

Worship Service at 11:00am: To Cling to the Shore or Let Go? Followed by a Town Hall

On June 8, 2000, the Elders of the Hopi Nation offered a proclamation to guide us all during times of challenge, change, and upheaval. As we enter the season of holidays and celebrations under the shadow of pandemic and political change, who will we choose to be?
