Beyond Sunday Morning

Serenity Prayer Adapted:

In troubled times may I find the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time, accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

Taking this world as it is, not as I would have it, trusting in myself to make things right in my life. Trusting in humanity to provide a better world for our children.

By doing this may I be able to find love and joy in my friends, family and community.

Worship Service at 11:00am: Healing the Broken Parts

From the personal to the national to the global, there is so much that feels broken as we witness a pandemic continuing to grow and political unrest around the world. We could debate if things were ever whole, but we do know there is a yearning for healing, wholeness, and connection. If there is to be peace, let it begin within each of us.
